What new skills have you learned because of your maker experience?

What were the benefits from you participating in this making activity?

What were the most important learning moments you take from this maker experience?

Has this maker experience changed you? If yes, how?

Would you do this or a similar maker project again? Why or why not?

Describe what you have learned about yourself as a result of your maker experience.

What would you like to change about your maker experience?

What surprised you the most during your maker experience?